Pony Days Information

During our Pony Days we will try and cover the following topics:

Feeding	Parts of the horse
Saddlery and tack	Stable Management
Health of the horse	Grooming etc

And of course lots of FUN and RIDING!!!

Pony Days include riding lessons, games, competitions, horsemanship lessons and learning all about the everyday care of horses and ponies.

Riders are to arrive in the morning between 8.45am - 9am and must be picked up between 3pm - 3.15pm (as staff will be leaving at that time)

All riders must bring their own lunch, morning tea is provided.

Correct riding attire must be worn while around the horses. Long comfortable trousers, flat soled shoes with small heel and 3838 safety standard approved helmets. We have some loan items in stock – but sizes can be limited.

We require a minimum of 24 hours notice for all bookings. No refunds will be provided for non attendance once booked in.

Any damages caused by clients not following staff instructions will be charged for. Please be aware of our terms and conditions when riding at the school.
