Pony Day Information

Pony Days at Showgrounds include riding lessons, games, competitions, horsemanship lessons and learning all about the everyday care of horses and ponies such as:

Feeding	Parts of the horse
Saddlery and tack	Stable Management
Health of the horse	Grooming etc...

We try to cover as many topics as possible throughout the holidays but above all our aim is to have FUN!

Riders are to arrive in the morning between 8.45am - 9am and must be picked up between 3pm - 3.15pm (as staff will be leaving at that time)

All riders must bring their own lunch, morning tea is provided and don't forget sunscreen, a jacket and an extra bottle of water.

Correct riding attire must be worn while around the horses. Long comfortable trousers, flat soled shoes with small heel and 3838 safety standard approved helmets. We have some loan items in stock – but sizes can be limited.

We require a minimum of 24 hours notice for all bookings. No refunds will be provided for non attendance once booked in.

Any damages caused by clients not following staff instructions will be charged for. Please be aware of our terms and conditions when riding at the school.
